28 September 7.30pm St Albans Abbey Study Centre Talk

"In Search of St. George". Cost £6. For many, St. George is an uncertain figure from England's cultural lore – a football mascot, a stock mummer character, a pub name a chivalric folk-talk, part Arthurian legend, part children's story. Others associate St George with patriotism, the monarch and high church symbolism; or perhaps a divisive, exclusionary, nationalist figure. Which is it – all, some or none of the above or more? Discover the story of St. George from his beginnings as an early Christian martyr of Roman Palestine to his present day role across many nations, faiths and people. Tutor: Dan Koski, Tantur Ecumenical Institute of Jerusalem.
Venue Board Room Holywell Lodge St. Albans.

Sunday 1st October. Harvest Festival Lunch.

Please sign the list if you intend to come.
